

Conference in Barnaul

Alexey Fominykh, Research fellow at Jean Monnet Center of Excellence – SUFEX took part in the international conference ‘Resources of Soft Power: Use of States and Non-state Actors’, which was held at Altai State University in Barnaul. The conference is a traditional event, organized annually since 1996 by the Altai School of Political Studies. The discussion gathered scholars from Canada, China, Germany, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, as well as from many Russian universities, and reflected upon various implications of soft power in international relations. More detailed information (in Russian) on Altai State University website.

